Equality Policy

Date:September, 2022.....

Review Date:September, 2023.....

Author:Headteacher.....

Approved by Governors:

"Prevent Duty: Under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015, we have a duty to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism (Prevent duty). Protecting children from the risk of radicalisation remains part of our school's wider duty to safeguard children and young people. "Radicalisation refers to the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and forms of extremism....Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs." (KCSIE, September 2016). We are alert to any possible signs which contribute to vulnerability such as family, friends or online influences as well as any changes in behaviour which could indicate a child may be in need of help or protection. We carry out risk assessments of vulnerable children and young people accordingly, work in partnership with other agencies and the family, and ensure staff are suitably trained and supported in keeping with our LSCB procedures."

This policy has been developed with and will be implemented in accordance with the Christian values of St Paul's CofE VC Junior School.

Teachers ensure that the classroom is an inclusive environment in which pupils feel all their contributions are valued. All pupils have access to the mainstream curriculum. Teaching is responsive to pupils' different learning styles and takes account of pupils' cultural backgrounds and linguistic needs. Teachers take positive steps to include all groups or individuals. Pupil grouping in the classroom is planned and varied. Allocations to teaching groups are kept under continual review and are analysed by ethnicity, gender, SEND and social background. Teaching styles include collaborative learning so that pupils appreciate the value of working together. All pupils are encouraged to question, discuss and collaborate in problem solving tasks.

Responsibilities The role of Local Governors

The Local Governing Body has a commitment to equal opportunities and it will continue to do all it can to ensure that all members of the school community are treated both fairly and equally. The Local Governing Body collects, analyses and evaluates a range of school data. We check that all pupils are making the best possible progress, and that no group of pupils is underachieving. To do this, we monitor: admissions, attainment, exclusions, parents' and pupils' questionnaires. The Local Governing Body seeks to ensure that people from the 'protected groups' as defined by The Equality Act 2010 (see section 1.2 above) are not discriminated against when applying for jobs at our school. The Governors welcome all applications to join the school, whatever background or minority group a child may come from. The Governors welcome all applications to join the school, whatever background or disability a child may have. The Governing Body ensures that no child is discriminated against whilst in our school on account of their sex, religion or race. So, for example, all children have access to the full range of the curriculum, and regulations regarding school uniform will be applied equally to boys and girls. If a child's religion has a bearing on school uniform, then the school will deal with each case sensitively, and with respect for the child's cultural traditions.

The role of the Headteacher

- to implement the school's policy on equal opportunities, and they are supported by the Local Governing Body in so doing.
- to make sure that all staff are aware of the school policy on equal opportunities, and that teachers apply these guidelines fairly in all situations.
- ensures that all appointments panels give due regard to this policy, so that no one is discriminated against.
- promotes the principle of equal opportunity when developing the curriculum, and in providing opportunities for training.
- promotes respect for other people in all aspects of school life; in the assembly, for example, respect for other people is a regular theme, as it is also in displays around the school.
- views all incidents of unfair treatment, and any racist incidents, with due concern.

The Local Governing Body and Headteacher will ensure that the school complies with all relevant equalities legislation. The Local Governing Body and Headteacher will ensure that the policy and related procedures and strategies are implemented. The Headteacher will ensure that all staff members are aware of their responsibilities under the policy.

The role of the Class Teacher

Class Teachers recognise their own prejudices, but do their best to ensure that all pupils are treated fairly and with respect. We do not knowingly discriminate against any child. When selecting classroom material, teachers strive to provide resources which give positive images, and which challenge stereotypical images of minority groups. We seek to implement this policy when designing schemes of work, both in our choice of topics to study, and in how we approach sensitive issues. All our teachers and support staff challenge any incidents of prejudice or racism. We record any incidents in the school log book and draw them to the immediate attention of the Head of School.

Monitoring & Review

It is the responsibility of our local governing body to monitor the effectiveness of this policy. The Local Governors will therefore:

- Monitor the progress of pupils from minority groups, comparing it with the progress made by other pupils in the school.
- Monitor the staff appointment process, so that no one applying for a post at this school is discriminated against.
- Require the Headteacher to report to Governors annually on the effectiveness of this policy;
- take into serious consideration any complaints from parents/carers, staff or pupils regarding equal opportunity.
- Monitor the school's behaviour policy, and the numbers of exclusions, to make sure that pupils from minority groups are not unfairly treated.

This policy will be reviewed by the Local Governing Body every two years, or earlier if it is considered necessary.
