

Year 5 – Day 2 – Writing Task

Task: Write a non-chronological report about an animal or country. You can use one of the pictures below to help with your writing or use your own ideas.

Things to include in your non-chronological report:

- ✓ Paragraphs including an introduction and a conclusion
- ✓ Headings
- ✓ A range of punctuation including parenthesis (brackets and dashes)

Full Stop

This Punctuation mark is used to indicate the end of a sentence.

Brackets

Round brackets are mainly used to separate information that isn't essential to the sentence. If you remove the section in brackets the sentence will still make sense. This is called parenthesis.

Mount Everest (8,848m) is the highest mountain in the world.

Question mark

This punctuation mark is used to indicate that a question is being asked.

Have you seen the film?

Exclamation mark

The main use of the exclamation mark is to end an interjection or exclamation and indicate strong feelings.

Wow! Hello!

Inverted commas

Inverted commas are used to mark the beginning and end of direct speech.

"What time will he arrive?" Mary asked.

Semicolon

Semicolons are used to separate two main clauses that are closely related to each other, but could stand on their own as sentences.

I have a big test tomorrow; I can't go out tonight.

Apostrophe

Apostrophes have two main uses: showing possession and showing omission.

Possession - Here the apostrophe indicates that a thing or a person belongs or relates to someone or something.

E.g. Ben's party.

Omission - Here the apostrophe is used to show that letters or numbers have been omitted.

*I'm (short for I am)
He'll (short for he will)*

Colon

Colons have two main uses:

- To separate two clauses where the second clause defines or explains the first.

E.g. It wasn't easy to begin with: I had to find the right house.

- To introduce a list.

At the shop, I need to buy a few items: carrots, chicken, potatoes and fruit juice.

Dashes

Dash - creates a break in the sentence, halfway between , and .

Usually used in more informal writing.

Shows a sharp break between two main clauses.

This film was very informative - I learned a great deal.

Marks out extra information embedded in the sentence.

Playing in grandma's garden - which is huge - is always good fun.

One thing's for sure - he doesn't want to go!
