BE CAREFUL
WITH YOUR WORDS.
ONCE THEY ARE SAID,
THEY CAN BE ONLY
FORGIVEN,
NOT FORGOTTEN.

If we speak to people in a horrible way, it is likely to cause a nasty response, which could result in a playground argument and falling out with our friends.

Sometimes, things that we say could result in a person showing bullying behaviour or encourage a group of children to gang up against another child. Our words are powerful and make a difference.

Time to REFLECT

Think about the year ahead. –

‘Those who guard their mouths and their tongues keep themselves from calamity.’ (Proverbs 21.23)

- ‘Kind words bring life, but cruel words crush your spirit.’ (Proverbs 15.4)

- ‘Without wood, a fire goes out; without gossip, a quarrel dies down.’ (Proverbs 26.20)

Dear God,

Thank you that we have control over the world's most dangerous weapon.

Thank you that we can use our spoken words and what we type to say good and helpful things to one another. Please help us to learn to be kind to our friends, even if they are not being nice to us.

Amen.
